

Meaningful Ways You Can Participate in Welcoming Week for Universities and Colleges

- Host a Cultural Gathering

Organize a potluck, lunch-and-learn, or speaker event that highlights the global stories and perspectives on your campus.

- Share Campus Stories

Invite students, staff, and faculty to share their international journeys or how cultural diversity has shaped their experience.

- Celebrate Campus Diversity

Use bulletin boards, digital displays, or newsletters to showcase the languages, cultures, and strengths represented in your college community.

- Promote Inclusion Campus-Wide

Share messages of belonging across campus signage or social media using #WelcomingWeekNEO. Tag @GlobalCleveland and @global.cleveland to amplify. You can also send us a video, speech, or message of support—and we'll help amplify your message.

- Support International Students & Staff

Offer mentorship, peer support, or a simple welcome to help newcomers feel at home in Northeast Ohio. Show your commitment to opportunity, belonging, and workforce growth by signing and sharing the Welcoming Pledge.

- Join the Celebration

Promote or attend public events like Global Cleveland's Trivia Night and other Welcoming Week activities. Explore Global Cleveland's events here.

Have ideas for collaboration? Reach out to us.